STAT

Ken was approached by Professor Angeliki Laiou, Harvard University, about access to previously released Agency documents on Greece 1940-50. Ken arranged, through [redacted] to give her a listing of such documents and information on how to order them.

STAT

Ken handled a phone query from OGC about the official seat of the Agency. He provided (from our history of the building at Langley) information about the opening of the building. He also referred the requester to Walt Elder for information about DCI McCone's move to Langley.

[redacted] handled several phone queries -- one to help OCR identify some old routing symbols and one from the Office of Finance about the status of the old Monetary Division history project. Several others were from RMO's running down histories dealing with counterinsurgency cited on the list she had prepared earlier for [redacted] for use in a DDI/OGI project.

STAT

Don arranged for Roland Inlow to come in a second time. Inlow read some of Don's chapters and did a taped interview on COMIREX. Don has an
